Mr. Donald Gregg
Assistant to the Vice President for National Security Affairs
Old Executive Office Building
Washington, DC 20506

Dear Mr. Gregg:

We would like to invite you to address the next running of the Career Trainee Development Course on 27 January 1986 in Room 902 of the Chamber of Commerce Building from 0945 - 1045.

This time we wonder if you would be willing to speak on the "Role of Intelligence in Foreign Policy Formulation." The talk is scheduled for the first day of the course and would help the career trainees understand the importance of the intelligence product. We believe your experience makes you an ideal person to communicate this message to these new employees. The class represents all directorates of the Agency.

The career trainees have enjoyed your presentations in the past so we are hopeful that you will be able to accept our invitation. If you have any questions, please contact [redacted] the course chairman, on [redacted]

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Director of Training and Education
